

warrant, which jury, upon their oath, to be by any one of the said justices to the said jurors administered, shall inquire who is or are the owner or owners of the said land, what is the value thereof, and what damages such owner or owners will sustain; and the sum of money the said jurors shall adjudge to the owner or owners of such land, shall be assessed by the justices of such county at the time of the making their next county assessment, and shall be collected by the sheriff or collector of such county in the same manner as the county assessment, and the sheriff or collector shall tender or pay the same to the owner or owners of such land; and the said justices shall, immediately after such valuation by the jury, cause such land to be surveyed and laid out by the surveyor of such county, with good and sufficient boundaries, and a certificate thereof to be returned and recorded in the county records; and the justices of the said county, and their successors, shall be and they are hereby vested with an estate in fee simple in the said land, for the use of such county forever; and the said justices, or any two of them, shall and they are hereby authorized and required to treat and agree with workmen to build and finish good, necessary and convenient warehouses on such land, and to purchase all necessities and conveniences to carry this act into execution, and the expenses for the same shall be assessed and collected on and from the inhabitants of such county in the same manner as the county assessment, and shall be paid by the sheriff or collector to the order of the said justices, or any three of them.

SEC. 45. And be it enacted, That the justices of the several county courts be authorized and required, at their respective county courts, to give this act in charge to the grand jury, and to direct them to make diligent inquiry into any breaches of this act, and particularly into the conduct of the inspectors in their county.

Act to be given in charge to grand juries

SEC. 46. And be it enacted, That the justices of the levy court are hereby authorized and required to inquire into the number of warehouses within their county, the quantity of tobacco inspected at each warehouse within the year, the number of inspectors at each warehouse, and the annual expense of, and receipts at, each warehouse, and after full inquiry, and mature consideration of all these circumstances, and the situation and convenience of the inhabitants of their county who carry tobacco for inspection, to determine whether any warehouse or warehouses appointed in their county in virtue of this act ought to be discontinued and suppressed, and also whether the number of inspectors at any warehouse ought to be increased or diminished, and the said justices shall enter their determination in the records of the minutes of their proceedings, and shall transmit a copy thereof

Court to inquire into number of houses, &c.
and if necessary,
discontinue
them.